Myothit of Myawady township and Tar-bokhee station (locally called) in the eastern part of Dawna hill, and made the mines in practical sessions.

According to the confessions of former representative of Pyithu Hluttaw from Zabuthiri township Maung Kyaw (aka) Phyo Zeyar Thaw from NLD party of Zabuthiri township who controlled the terrorist attacks in Yangon and was arrested on 19 November,

- The arrested suspects who launched attacks in Yangon region attended the explosive training of Saw Yan Naing (level of battalion commander) of KNLA Brigade (6).
- The confiscated weapons/ammunitions were bought by southern PDF in charge Lwin Ko Latt and northern PDF in charge Yi Mon of terrorist group CRPH/NUG, and they communicated with KNLA members and transported the weapons via land or sea routes via KNU areas.
- According to the confessions of arrested offenders, KNLA Brigade (6) accepted the PDFs in their area, and provided explosive training to them. They also attacked military columns and bases as well as committed mine attacks together with them. In order to do such activities, Saw Yan Naing of KNLA Brigade (6) received the assistance of NUG, CRPH and other foreign aids.

According to the confessions of Phyo Wai Lin and Nyi Nyi Lwin who were arrested in robbery case of Poh Poh jewellery shop on 12 May,

- They attended the training of KNLA Brigade (7) in Hngetpyawdaw station and Brigade Commander Saw Phaw Doh of KNLA Brigade (7) took them to the station using vehicle.
- The terrorist training courses were conducted by Saw Phaw Do with the assistance of CRPH/NUG terrorist group. They have to launch the acts of terrorism by linking with the leaders appointed by CRPH/NUG when they arrive at their respective regions and places.

The captured place of explosive training course in KNLA Brigade (1) area

According to the confessions of arrested offenders at the above-mentioned incident, the CRPH/ NUG terrorist group sent the NLD members/ supporters, CDMers and extremist youths to the terrorism and explosive training conducted in ethnic armed group-controlled areas with their own plans. Those who completed the training have to launch bomb attacks, kill the people who want to live in peace and the close ones of governmental departments under the name of “informants/Dalan”, and attack the security members as well as to commit arson or bomb attacks on schools to threaten the teachers and students by taking weapons and ammunitions through the terrorist group with an intent to disrupt the governance mechanism and threaten people.

According to the reviews on the incidents, the NUG terrorist group are opening the training courses to train terrorists and supporting weapons/ammunitions under the name of PDF with the assistance of KNU. Such actions are encouraging to occur acts of terrorism more in current.

Therefore, the security members are accelerating the security measures to prevent acts of terrorism and conducting necessary investigations to arrest the terrorists who disrupted the stability and peace of the State. The terrorists and those who support behind the terrorist attacks will face serious legal action under the law.

PDF Terrorists Blew Up a Basic Education High School in Kanbalu Township

Terrorist groups CRPH, NUG and PDF terrorists are brutally killing the Buddhist monks and teachers who are members of 'Five Infinite Venerables' and civil servant personnel. Moreover, they are also recklessly destroying and burning down the critical infrastructures for the development of the State such schools, hospitals, government offices, public economic buildings, houses, roads and bridges across the country.

On 23 November in Kanbalu township of Sagaing region, PDF terrorists planted and exploded an IED in front of an extended building of the sub-basic education high school in Chatkyi village, Kanbalu township. The explosion inflicted damages to the roof of the school building. Moreover, the terrorists left anti-government texts and the word NUG on the school walls.

The people who want to live in peace are disappointing such bombing attacks on schools by terrorists according to the guidance and order of terrorist group NUG. Moreover, parents are opposing these terror acts that affected the education of their sons and daughters, and having a desire to prevent and take action against those who are committing bombing attacks on schools and assassinations of teachers.

Security forces are taking necessary investigations to take legal actions against the perpetrators of such terrorist acts.

PDF Terrorists again Torched and Destroyed Houses and Religious Buildings in No. (2) Ward of Thantlang Township

The terrorist groups CRPH and NUG and PDF terrorists are conducting armed attacks, blowing up bridges and public roads as well as burning down the public houses in some areas in order to disrupt the State's peace, stability and rule of law.

Due to the arson attacks of terrorists in No. (2) ward of Thantlang township of Chin state on 24 November, 30 houses, a six-room-shopping facility, and a church (estimated worth of K70 million) were destroyed.

Likewise, so-called Thantlang PDF burnt down two churches and 70 houses in No. (1) ward on 29 October; 22 houses in No. (3) ward on 9 November; and they recorded those burning houses with Drone and spread misinformation. Moreover, they perpetrated destructive attacks on security forces and responsible civilians who tried to extinguish.

In Chin state, the terrorist groups are spreading misinformation and propaganda that the State's peace and stability is deteriorating after doing sabotages and violent acts in remote areas where transportation is difficult. Therefore, security forces are taking necessary security measures to ensure peace and stability and rule on law across the country.

The CDF Armed Terrorist Group Burnt Down Township General Administration Department Office, and Office of the Head of the Department of Immigration and Population in Kanpetlet Township

The CDF armed terrorist group burnt down the Township General Administration Department (GAD) office, and the office of the Head of the Department of Immigration and Population in Kanpetlet township of Chin State on 23 November. Security forces and members of the Fire Brigade inspected the areas on 24 November as follows:

- Due to the arson attacks of CDF terrorists, an abandoned building (length 40 feet and width 20 feet) in the compound of township immigration office and facilities inside the office worth K 3.5 million were destroyed.
- A meeting hall (length 80 feet and width 30 feet) and an abandoned building (length 60 feet and width 28 feet) in the compound of the township GAD office were damaged.
- Moreover, facilities inside the office worth K16 million, and K5,834,300 out of K32.5 million of agricultural loan stored in the safe box inside the building were destroyed.

The reason of those arson attacks on the abandoned buildings in remote area of Kanpetlet township, where the security is low, is to draw and change the attention of security forces who are trying to prevent and control the terrorist activities of so-called PDF terrorists and CNF armed terrorist groups from Kanpetlet and Saw townships of Chin state. That is the terrorist groups tried to avoid the suppression of security forces while they are nearly eradicated.

It is reported that terrorists who burnt down the State-owned buildings are being searched by security forces and the local Tatmadaw forces as per the security procedures.

Vehicles Transporting Cash of Funds Ambushed in Ye Township

On 24 November, the vehicles escorted by members of the security forces transporting cash of funds from the Myanmar Economic Bank branch (1) from Mawlamyine to its branch in Ye Township and were ambushed by armed insurgents and the PDF terrorists near Kaninkamawt village on the Mawlamyine-Ye road at around 4 pm. When the security forces fired at them, they retreated towards Kaninkamawt village.

During the clash, a driver of the truck was shot dead and a security guard was wounded. One of the vehicle's windshields was also broken. The armoured cash transport trucks finally arrived at Ye, it is reported.

So-called PDF terrorist groups are relied on the supports of NUG terrorist group for their survival. Therefore, while the NUG supports are cut, they tried to get money from hijacking cash-in-transits and frequently robbing banks in towns. Therefore, it is heard that the security forces accelerated necessary measures.

- On the same day, 25 PDF members came and killed NLD supporter U Kyaw Htein Lin, 40, by shooting with hunting rifles at his house in Shar Lwin village in Khin U Township.
- Similarly, NLD member U Chit Oo, 40, was killed and his body was burnt and left at around one mile north of Ohnpingon village in Khin U Township.
- Moreover, NLD member Zaw Min Tun (a) Gyo Kaun, 27 was killed by PDF terrorists at his house in Ngardingyi village in Khin U Township.

These victims were the supporters and the fundraisers of the NLD and PDF terrorist groups and they were killed when they returned home after parting ways with the PDF terrorists due to political differences.

It showed that the so-called PDF terrorist groups, with the supports of NUG terrorist group and the extremist ideology of “the one who is not from my side is my enemy,” brutally assassinated the innocent people who are not providing them; but now they murdered the members of NLD party and advocates under the reason of not following them even standing in the same side.
