Chairman of State Administration Council Prime Minister Senior General Min Aung Hlaing Sent a Message to the 66th Anniversary of Kayin State Day

Chairman of the State Administration Council Prime Minister Senior General Min Aung Hlaing delivered a message to the 66th Anniversary of Kayin State Day which falls on 7 November.

The excerpts from the message sent by the Prime Minister are as follows:

- The No (2) Myanmar-Thai friendship bridge and the establishment of more border trade camps in Kayin state which is a primary trade centre of Myanmar, can create job opportunities for local ethnics.
- If a hydropower station is built on the Thanlwin River for Kayin State generating sufficient electricity in the state can help operate a larger number of the factories consuming electricity as well as contribute to the enhancement of the living standard of the local people.
- Currently, the State Administration Council is implementing the Five-Point Road Map and Nine Political, Economic and Social Objectives as the basic principles. Efforts are being made for ensuring peace and stability of the State and improvement of socio-economic lives of ethnic people with might and main.

- The government is striving for ensuring national reconciliation and the peace of the Union with a firm vow to implement the sustainable and synchronized development that all the ethnic nationals can enjoy in an equal term.
- Now is time to implement the restoration of perpetual peace across the nation, essential for building the Union based on democracy and federalism the entire people aspire, I'd like to deeply urge all ethnic national people residing in Kayin State to participate in the peace process.

Second-Day Meeting of Union Election Commission (UEC) and Political Parties on Electoral System Continued

The second-day meeting of the Union Election Commission and the representatives of political parties on the electoral system continued at office of the Yangon Region Government on 6 November.

The excerpts from the discussions of respective political parties are as follows:

- The electoral reform is playing a vital role towards a new democratic federal union in the demands of history.
- In the previous election period, only the two major parties in the Hluttaw took turns in power, with the emergence of a strong one-party dictatorship.
- As 135 ethnic people are living in Myanmar, the practice of proportional representation will be able to serve the interests of different ethnic nationalities, adding that we believe that the federal rights desired by the ethnic nationalities can be realized through the parliamentary process.
- The implementation of the PR system would lead to a good political culture in the 330-seat in Pyithu Hluttaw, which selects the Chief Executive (President) as well as a good government and a strong legislature would emerge which integrate the differences.
- The implementation of the PR system could have advantages such as more opportunities for small parties and ethnic minorities to enter parliament, guaranteeing the rights of individual voter, reducing the influence of a single party and preventing a democratic dictatorship.
- This is the third time the Union Election Commission and political parties held a meeting. This time focused on the implementation of a PR system that is appropriate with Myanmar.
- The staff of the Union Election Commission focused to develop electoral researches, and that the best will be carried by obtaining opinions and ideas of political parties.

The meeting was attended by the members of UEC, officials, 92 representatives from 51 political parties and 18 civil society representatives, a total of 110 people.

Kapaungkya village located in Taze Township of Sagaing Region has about 700 houses with its residents supporting the USDP, NLD and other political parties. Despite supporting the different political parties, the residents had lived in peaceful co-existence. After the Tatmadaw assumed responsibilities of the State, NLD supporters in the village turned out to be ultra-terrorists and formed a PDF terrorist group led by Theegon Sayadaw Bhaddanta Sandima. The terrorist group then killed people who did not support NLD party.

The PDF terrorist group:

- The terrorist group killed nine people of 8 males and one female including some children at the age of 11, 16 and 18 and burnt down their houses on 17 April 2021.
- Similarly, the terrorist group killed three people of two males and one female including two old people at the age of 73 each, on 9 October.
- Moreover, they again killed two more people, a man and a woman, on October 10.

- In their terrorist act of killing and setting fires, 14 people – 11 males and three females – were killed. Because of their act of threat to life, village residents who do not support their party moved to nearby villages and their relatives in fear for their lives. Some had to flee to Taze Township Police Station and USDP party offices to take refuge.

As the local terrorists did further threats to them in many ways, the refuge-seeking people went and took shelter at Sayadaw Bhaddanta Warsawa's Sasana Alinyaung Buddhist Monastery in Oomawdaw Village in Kanbalu Township. Currently, the monastery has received more than 50 people.

Here are the words of Daw Thuzar Win who severely suffered the terror attacks of PDF terrorist group:

- “We hide in the forest because we are afraid of PDF. In the evening, PDF terrorists arming guns arrived with motorcycles. Kyaw Swar Htet and Wai Phyo Thant shoot my husband and killed him cruelly. After that, they shoot at heads of my father and mother and they died instantly. They set fire to our house and killed our 7 bulls. I hide in the forest the whole night sitting in the water to the knees level while raining. I was rescued by the police forces in the morning. The PDF terrorists killed my family, burned our house, killed our bulls and took away all the belongings that we worked, earned and saved.”

Here are the words of U Nyunt Khaing who severely suffered the terror attacks of PDF terrorist group:

- “All the PDFs were gathered and demolished my house. Then, they tried to kill me with swords and I ran away. When I was caught, they told me to bow down and pay respect to them and if I bow down to them, they will not kill you. Therefore, I had to bow down 3 times to two girls who are only the age of my daughter. As Sithu Win shot me with a slingshot to my neck, I tried to cover with my hand and my hand was cut severely. My wife, my son and my daughter left the village on two motorcycles. I requested my friend to come and fetch me in his car. Because of him, I was escaped from death. Sayadaw U Sandimar of Thigone Monastery also phoned me and told me to come back. My brother and my brother’s friend were killed because the PDF cannot find me. U Kyaw Myo Thet believed Sayardaw’s words and went back to the village. He was killed in the Sayardaw’s monastery. We don’t have a safe place to stay and we don’t have clothes to wear.”

Here are the words of U Tin Soe who violently suffered the terror attacks of PDF terrorist group:

- “PDF came to my house and demolished my house because I hoist the USDP flag. I was caught while I ran away with my family. They aimed with swords and spears. While they were looking for ropes to tie me, as one villager shouted ‘the army is coming’, they ran away. My house is a parker building and it’s worth K 70 million. They burned down my house. They burned down all the pieces of machinery that we make for our living. We have nothing left.”

Regarding the incident, Sayadaw Bhaddanta Warsawa said as follows:

- “In the Kapaungkya village incident, up to 14 people were killed and 17 houses were burnt down. All their houses were burned, properties were robbed, bulls and cows were slaughtered by PDF. At present, there are more than 50 villagers in my monastery. They are facing so many difficulties. The villagers are relying on the Tatmadaw for their safety.”

Security forces arrived the Kapaungkya village and conducted security measures to keep the village safe from the further threats of PDF and provided necessary arrangements so that the villages can safely live in their houses. Moreover, security forces are joining hands together with the people to arrest the perpetrators of murders and arsons as early as possible for legal proceeding.
