Press Release on Circulating Misinformation about Crowd Dispersal of Security Forces in Kyimyindine Township, Yangon Region

A crowd of people staged an unlawful riot on Panbingyi road in Kyimyindine township of Yangon region on 5 December. The security forces dispersed the crowd who were making acts of violence by blocking roads and attacking with fire bombs for harming the public lives and property. As some embassies, media and social network pages are distributing or releasing fabricated information about the event, the statement on the incident is released as follows:

News Release

The security forces dispersed a crowd as the people who do not want unrest reported to them that a crowd of people staged an unlawful riot on Panbingyi road in Makyetan (South/ West) in Kyimyindine township of Yangon region on 5 December. The police arrested Bo Bo San 20, (s/o) U MyintNaing, MaungKaung 26(s/o) U Myo Lin, KyawZinKhant 20,(s/o) U AungZawTun, ArkarKyaw 19(s/o) U ZarniTun, KoKoNaing 20,(s/o)U MyoSein, Min MinOo 26,(s/o)U Win Oo, Min Hein Khant 21, (s/o) U Tin Than, Sithu 28, (s/o) U SoeMyint, Karayzin (aka) HmuYadana 25, daughter of U Tin HlaAung, MyaKyuKyu Thin 29, daughter of U Kyaw Min Aung and Yin May Aung 15, U Zarni Tun.

It has already been announced that among these detainees, Bo Bo San had shallow cuts on the head and arm; MaungKaung had scratches on the head and right knee; and Karayzin (aka) HmuYadana had shallow cuts on the head and a broken left leg. Security forces sent them to the nearest hospital where they were receiving medical treatment.

Currently, the country is under the State of emergency. While the government is trying to restore national peace and tranquility, there are attempts to stage unlawful strikes due to the instigation of some persons and organizations.

Those acts of blocking roads and attacking with fire bombs by the unruly strikers through unlawful riots were seen as the step by step intention of harming the public lives and property.

Security forces had to stop the unlawful disturbances in accord with the rules and procedures before the situation became harmful and life-threatening. In such careful acts, there was no fatality, and only three persons were injured. The injured are now under intensive care at the nearest military hospital.

Regarding the incident, some embassies and media release statements with false news and spread misinformation via social networks to make people feel worried seriously.

It is here announced that the people should not follow the incitement of some people and organizations trying to appear acts of violence through such unlawful riots.

Coordination Meeting on the Functions of Myanmar Economic Bank and the Internal Revenue Department

Union Minister for Planning and Finance attended the coordination meeting on the functions of Myanmar Economic Bank (MEB) and the coordination meeting on matters relating to the collecting taxes of Internal Revenue Department held at the Ministry of Planning and Finance on 6 December.

During the coordination meeting on the functions of Myanmar Economic Bank, the Union Minister stressed the following points:

- Local officials are cooperating with MEB in the processes of cash withdrawal, requirement of cash, transporting the cash, providing pension salaries and withdrawal of cash from ATMs.
- It is required to provide services to facilitate the process of deposit and withdrawal of cash by people and the departmental officials and also to ensure there is no misconduct.

During the coordination meeting on matters relating to the collecting taxes of Internal Revenue Department, the Union Minister stressed the following points:

- The ratio of collected taxes and GDP is found to be low in comparison to the data of other countries. Hence, the reforms in tax system have been conducted with the help of international associations including International Monetary Fund-IMF in a decade and now the tax system has improved to the tax system levied by the tax-payers themselves from the tax system levied by the tax offices.

- Plans are underway to collect tax with the Value Added Tax-VAT system and it is also required to expand the tax base and facilitate the tax-paying process.
- The tax-evasions and misconducts will be identified and taken actions. By doing so, the State will manage to fully collect the taxes contributing the activities to fulfil its national objectives.

Four People Burnt to Death and Two Injured Due to the Brutal Arson Attack and Assassination of so-called PDF Terrorists in Natogyi Township

The brutal killing and arson attacks on the village administrator of Letwelmyinni village in Natogyi township and his home by PDF terrorist group

Four people (three males and one female) including village administrator were burnt to death, and two people (one male and one female) were injured due to the brutal arson attack and assassination of so-called PDF terrorists in Natogyi township of Mandalay region.

When U San Win, 53, village administrator of Letwelmyinni village in Natogyi township is talking with his family members and village elder U Han Win, 48, at their home on 5 December, seven PDF armed terrorists arrived with four motorcycles. Then, they opened fire to the people in the home, exploded IEDs, burnt down the home, and they drove off with their motorcycles.

Due to the brutal shooting and arson attack of terrorists, village administrator U San Win, his son Mg Wai Min Thu, 25, his daughter-in-law Ma Khine Soe Yi, 30, and U Han Win died on the spot. Moreover, wife of village administrator U San Win, Daw Than Than Sint, 52, was injured with a gunshot wound on right thigh and her son Mg Phoe Lal, 17, injured with a gunshot wound on his left arm respectively.

This incident was the unlawful terrorist attack and assassination committed by so-called PDF terrorists on innocent civilians who desire to live in peace due to the instructions and ammunition supplies of the terrorist group NUG. The people are worried because the terrorist groups NUG/PDF brutally killed the people who do not support after accusing them as “Dalan/Informant”. Therefore, the security forces together with people are accelerating necessary security measures for community peace and stability.

Due to the arson attacks of the terrorists, U San Win’s home was destroyed in fire and the injured people were taken by security forces to Myingyan township pub-
