Chairman of State Administration Council Prime Minister Senior General Min Aung Hlaing Addresses the Coordination Meeting on the Higher Education Sector

The Chairman of the State Administration Council (SAC) Prime Minister Senior General Min Aung Hlaing attended and addressed the coordination meeting on the higher education sector of the Ministry of Education which was held at the meeting hall of the ministry in Nay Pyi Taw on 17 January.

During the meeting, the Prime Minister stressed the following points:

- Education sector is being emphasized and the State government want to improve the national education. The education sector is essential for national development. Both the developing and developed countries are giving priority to education.
- The rural education sector was weak in states and ethnic areas due to language and transport barriers. The education sector was weak throughout the administration of successive governments because of the lack of teachers and other shortages.
- Hence, the 30-year national education programme is being implemented for the development of the education sector.
- As a higher number of educated persons are required for national development, the personnel of the education sector should strive to increase the number of educated persons.
- Classrooms and practical rooms must be systematic for students to have easy access to the learning. As the qualifications of faculty members are of great importance, they have higher academic skills and knowledge to give comprehensive lectures to the student.
- Universities must be facilitated with sports grounds and gymnasiums for students to take sports.
- Faculty members need to teach students with good behaviours, good morals, techniques and critical thinking.
- As it is necessary to train the students to have experiences for life as well as learning education at the university, good environments must be created for students to widen their scope of vision.
- University education is not to do rote

- learning but studies and thinking. Interactive discussions between students and faculty members can create uplift of critical thinking of students.
- The government is carrying out physical and mental improvement of the students. Academicians need to teach students to have actual skills and knowledge. If so, the education sector will be developed.
- When we do the tasks we are assigned, we must focus on our jobs and respect time. Then, we will be able to finish the tasks in a target period and achieve progress.
- As teachers usually work with interest, goodwill and sacrifice, the government increased their allowances depending on their qualification and will continue to increase.
- Refresher courses must be conducted for faculty members to be able to study new knowledge in the relevant sector.

The meeting was attended by the SAC members, Union Minister and Deputy Minister for Education, the permanent secretary, directors-general, rectors, principals, deputy directors-general, pro-rectors and officials.

Security Forces Stepping up Security Measures to Prevent Terrorists' Violent Acts in Loikaw

Following the declaration of a state of emergency in accord with the Constitution and assuming the responsibilities of the State, the Tatmadaw has been making efforts to bring about regional stability and the rule of law throughout the country. Terrorist groups such as CRPH, NUG and their affiliates, the so-called PDF terrorists, are committing to destabilize the country and to make the people panicked with various forms of terrorism in cities, towns and villages.

Location of Engagement with Terrorists in Monglon Ward in Loikaw Town

According to a report on insurgents who were preparing to carry out terrorist activities by taking refuge in people's homes in Monglon Ward in Loikaw town of Kayah state in the afternoon of 16 January, the Tatmadaw and security forces systematically intervened to ensure the lives and property of the people not be damaged. However, as terrorists taking cover of civilian houses used heavy/small arms to attack the security forces who were conducting the security operations, clashes took place from 12:25 pm until 2:30 pm on that day. In addition, according to the report of civilians on terrorists who were gathering in Nannmaikhon to distribute ammunition and recruit more terrorists into Loikaw, and some were on the way to accelerate terrorist acts in Loikaw, the Tatmadaw attacked the terrorists with close air supports and artillery fire in order to prevent their terrorist activities.

It is reported that the Tatmadaw and security forces are working together with the people who do not want acts of violence and stepping up security measures to counter the intentional actions of terrorists to disrupt the State's peace and stability and inflict civilian casualties.

PDF Terrorists Attack Vehicles Carrying Liquid LP Gas from Myawady Township with Small Arms for No Reason

The truck carrying LP Gas destroyed in the gun attack of terrorists for no reasons

PDF terrorists opened fire with small arms on two FUSO trucks of Awra and Chit Lin Myaing companies that were leaving Myawady township for Ye township and Mawlamyine township respectively and burned down them for no reason on 16 January when these vehicles arrived at about 2500 metres to the west of the Tatangu village near Myawady-Kawpareik Asia Road. The 12-wheeler and 10-wheeler “FUSO” trucks, carrying liquid LP Gas used as a substitution for cooking to replace firewood, were driven by U Min Min, and U Khin Mg Than respectively. In the attack, both drivers were killed with wounds and both trucks were damaged by fire and bullets.

PDF terrorists are doing terrorist acts such as blowing up and shooting sneakily the trucks carrying liquid gas and LP gas used in industry as well as medical-used oxygen. Therefore, private business owners facing loss want to arrest terrorist groups quickly and take severe legal actions against them.

Security forces went to the scene together with fire fighters for putting out the fire and for carrying out necessary security measures and moreover, they are making further necessary measures to uncover and capture the perpetrators who committed the violence acts and to ensure the security in the area.

So-called PDF Terrorists Brutally Kill Buddhist Monks, Accusing them of Various Reasons

NUG, CRPH and PDF terrorists are committing terrorist crimes such as acts of threatening, killing and robbing not only administrative officials, civil servants and innocent civilians but also Buddhist monks who are paid obeisance by people in some areas of the country, accusing them of various reasons. In this regard:

- On 16 January, the devotees noticed that Sayadaw Bhaddanta Patita, 55, (22 years of monkhood) staying in Pangontha Monastery of Ushitgon village in Kanbalu Township of Sagaing region, was missing when they came to offer 'day meals'(soom) at the monastery. When they searched for Sayadaw, they found Sayadaw dead with knife wounds and burn injuries in the paddy field at the back of the monastery.

- Similarly, when a novice called Zawana (aka) Nyein Chan, staying in Ywa Htaung monastery of Latzin village tract in Monywa township, was walking alone on the Seinpan road, a man riding a motorcycle beat him with a stick and ran away. With the serious wounds of pressure sore on right ear, torn above the eyebrow and bleeding in nose and ears, the novice was dead.

It is reported that as terrorist groups committed brutal murder cases against Buddhist monks, and a total of 20 monks have been killed and seven injured to date.

A Jewellery Shop in Indaw Township Robbed of Goldwares by Five Terrorists Using Guns and Explosives

A jewellery shop in Indaw township of Sagaing region was robbed of goldwares by five terrorists on 16 January. The terrorists took 1,487 various kinds of goldwares worth K306.9 million after threatening the shop owners using short guns and explosives.

- In the incident, five terrorists wearing masks arrived with two motorbikes at the goldwares and pawn shop named 'U Tin Aung and Daw Khin Khin Gyi' located on Thida Aye street, Aung Chantha Ward. They entered the shop after saying they wanted to pawn some goldwares.
- When the terrorists were in the shop, two of them held U Tin Aung and Daw Khin Khin Gyi at gunpoint and moved them into a bedroom of the house.
- Other three terrorists in the shop broke the glass showcases and looted 1,487 units of various goldwares (around 1 Viss and 65 Ticals) worth K306,900,00.

- The terrorists then planted two IEDs inside the bedroom and on the glass showcase each. After that, terrorists threatened the hostages that they would blow up the IEDs if the latter report to the police and drove off with their motorbikes.

The PDF terrorists, subordinate armed wings of NUG have received no more cash assistances from NUG and donation cash under the title of revolution fund from people due to their abuse of the fund. Consequently, in order to sustain their survival, it is found that they are not only collecting extortion money forcibly from innocent people but also committing the nefarious crimes of robbery.

It is reported that security forces continue necessary checks and searches to arrest the terrorists, who committed the above-mentioned crime of robbery, at early as possible.
